

PHS English Honors and AP Summer Reading Assignment 2018-19

Lexington School District One Purpose Statement for Honors Summer Reading:

Summer reading offers students an opportunity to enjoy quality literature while growing their independent reading skills. Students demonstrate their abilities through standards-based engagements in comprehension and vocabulary. This self-directed experience will allow students to reinforce skills previously learned and prepare them for future learning.

English II-Honors

Directions: Pick one of the titles from below to read and complete the Summer Reading Form.
(This assignment is for a formative grade.)

English II-Honors: A Long Way Gone by Ishmael Beah
The Good Earth by Pearl S. Buck
One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich by Alexander Solzhenitsyn

Due Dates:

1st Semester courses – August 28, 2018
2nd Semester courses – January 14, 2019

English III-Honors

Directions: Pick one of the titles from below to read and complete the Summer Reading Form.
(This assignment is for a formative grade.)

English III-Honors: Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain
The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald
The Red Badge of Courage by Stephen Crane

Due Dates:

1st Semester courses – August 28, 2018
2nd Semester courses – January 14, 2019

English IV-AP

Directions: 1. Read 1984 and complete the Summer Reading Form for 1984.
(This assignment is for a formative grade.)

2. Read Thank You for Arguing and complete the study guide for Thank You for Arguing.
(This book will be referenced and used throughout the semester, but the completed study guide will be a formative grade.)

Due Dates:

1st Semester courses – August 28, 2018
2nd Semester courses – January 14, 2019